Freeway complete waste

Dear Editor:

In response to Ann T. Marshall's article in the Feb. 22 edition of the AFN, "Don't spend tax dollars on freeway," all I have to say to her is kudos and bravo!

Don't spend our tax dollars on a potential dysfunctional 10-lane superhighway, which will be nothing more than a bypass for 18-wheelers and FedEx. Why don't you put all of those millions of dollars you have set aside for this archaic disaster waiting to happen, just so Tom, Dick and Harry can get to a game faster, and invest it in our children (our schools). Quadruple the mass transit system.

Our kids need education. Money feeds teachers and programs; the teachers feed our kids. This is the educational food chain, and our kids are starving. Have you forgotten that they are our future?

Take those millions just sitting around and funnel them to the school systems and further educate the kids, instead of demolishing the roads that lead to those schools and the houses the children live in. Construct a few more buses or a really nice train so all concerned can get to the game on time.

Governor Napolitano, it's time to reinforce your concerns on P20; the future of our kids, and what an insanely, ignorant idea this potential freeway is, or rather, was.

Once again, Ms. Ann T. Marshall, well done!

Anna Nuehring
